

“New Jersey Coalition Responds to the Crisis in Darfur”
presents:

Genocide in Darfur: Remnant or Present Reality?

New Jersey Forges a Pathway to Peace

The Conference will provide updates on the current status of international diplomacy and the Obama administration's policy on Darfur and then explore effective ways for achieving peace and reconciliation. The day long conference will include:

- Panels on understanding the complex history of Darfur
- A discussion with refugee leaders
- A session on international diplomacy
- A panel on how to impact the U.S. national agenda in order to end the genocide in Darfur.

Featured speaker:

General(Ret.) Scott Gration, US Special Envoy to Sudan

Friday October 16th, 9am - 3:30pm

Kean University

(Little Theater in University Center Building)

Free and Open to the Public

Now is the time for decisive action!

New Jerseyans are committed to stopping this tragedy - join us for all or part of the day to hear from experts and add your voice!

For more details visit www.NJDarfur.org

RSVP to newjersey@ajc.org